"I want to help people and improve their future. Joining Deutschmann Law will give me the opportunity to help clients with their problems every day and make a difference."

- Nick de Koning

Motor vehicle accident claims and long-term disability denials can be complicated, but victims don't have to face them alone. Rob Deutschmann is very pleased to announce that as of January 8, Nick de Koning has joined the personal injury team at Deutschmann Law. Nick has over 15 years of extensive experience with personal injury and disability claims and has achieved an impressive record of success. His name appears in several reported decisions of the Superior Court of Justice, the Financial Services Commission of Ontario (FSCO) and the Licence Appeal Tribunal (LAT). Nick's experience will enhance the firm's ability to help more clients whose lives have been impacted by these difficult situations and deliver on its commitment to their future. Nick genuinely cares about helping people through his work and has been a longtime volunteer giving back to the community.
